MARINE AND FIELD CLUB TO ENTERTAIN

Will Give Italian Costume Dinner Wednesday, with Extra Music and Dancing.

Everybody is supposed to be out of town by this time, but judging by the large attendance at the entertainments of the Atlantic Yacht Club, at Sea Gate, and those at the Marine and Field Club, a considerable number of the younger feminine members of society have stayed at home to look after the welfare of the men of the family or else are taking shopping as an excuse for frequent trips to the city in the middle of the week.

Wednesday the attraction at the Marine and Field Club will be a costume Italian dinner. Special music and dancers have been secured for the occasion.

THE SOCIAL WHIRL AT NARRAGANSETT

The Daily Programme Includes a Variety of Pleasures That Keeps One Busy.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., July 11. If one follows the usual routine of life at Narragansett the daily programme includes a visit to the beach or the promenade along the shore in the morning, followed by attending the noonday concert on the plaza of the Casino, and then a motor whirl to the Point Judith Country Club in the afternoon for practice matches or golf or tennis, whichever you prefer, and then afternoon tea on the lawn, where many of the cottagers assemble for a Point Judith tea.

Narragansett proposes to have two bathing resorts this summer, and while the old beach is destined to hold sway as a popular place for the bath, those seeking more seclusion have formed an organization known as the Scarborough Beach Club.

The new bathing pavilion will be open soon for members who desire an exclusive bath, and one of the features planned is a sun bather for "sun baths" far from the madding crowd.

Philip S. P. Randolph, of Philadelphia, has been elected president of the Scarborough Beach Club, Thomas G. Hazard, of Narragansett, Pier, secretary, and John R. Fell, of Fort Washington, Penn., treasurer.

Among members of the new bathing club at Scarborough are Edward L. Welsh, Dr. Joseph Leidy, P. S. P. Randolph, W. Plunkett Stewart, Arthur Hale, of Philadelphia; Miss Sarah B. Jones, of Baltimore; Saunders, P. Jones, of Louisville; Frederick R. Hazard, of Syracuse; Irving H. Chase, of Waterbury, Conn.; and David Stevenson and Henry de Connet, of New York.

Upon completion of the new pavilion will extend for several hundred feet along the beach, which is not far from the Point Judith Country Club.

OUTDOOR LIFE AT LAKE GEORGE

Ideal Weather Leads to the Full Enjoyment of All Sorts of Sport.

Lake George, N. Y., July 11. Once more Lake George has taken on the atmosphere of life and gaiety which indicates that the resort season is at its height. Fears of a dull season, expressed last week as a result of the cold, wet weather, were put to rout on the fourth of July by the incoming of crowds never before witnessed at the lake. Trains and automobiles brought in thousands, many to stay the remainder of the summer, and in consequence hotels, cottages and camps are filled to capacity.

The perfect weather of the last week has attracted all to the enjoyment of outdoor sports. Golf, tennis, fishing, swimming, mountain climbing, boating and dancing, each have their hundreds of devotees. The revived interest in tennis this year has led to the construction of numbers of new courts, while the vogue enjoyed by the new dances has resulted in the holding of daily dances by all hotels. The continued success of the fishermen has led many to following this pursuit, with many large catches resulting. A notable one was that of J. R. Coughtry, of Albany, on Tuesday, several hundred salmon trout, averaging three pounds each, being pulled out in three hours near Pearl Point. Mrs. Frank Danzel, of New York, a stage favorite well known under the name of Frances Parr, added to her laurels on Wednesday by landing a six-pound pickerel in the resort history of the lake, it being are said to be eminently satisfactory, and the prospects of keeping the gold challenge cup at Lake George are bright. With her running mate, the Hawkeye, owned by the Lake George Club, and which is due to arrive on July 17, she will be put through a series of trials, in which it is believed an average speed will be maintained exceeding the world's record. That the record for the mile will be shattered in the race is undoubted by all who have followed the performances of the boats entered.

The Lake George Club, as of yore, remains the headquarters for social events. In addition to the regular bi-weekly dances, several dinner dances were given during the last week.
